When the sun’s shining, The Mountain’s out and a record number of participants are running in the 16th annual Rainier to Ruston Rail-Trail Relay — and beer and grilled cheese sandwiches are awaiting the finishers — you’d have to call it just about a perfect day for the 50-mile R2R on June 2.

But you could also call it The Year of the Train. Who knew Tacoma Rail would be messing around with a long line of freight cars right smack in the path of the last wave of runners as they neared Tacoma late in the afternoon?

Instead of racing to the bayside finish line on Schuster Parkway and collecting snazzy new race medals with their teammates, dozens of runners literally had to cool their heels. It’s one thing to have to wait for a train to go by, but heck, this train was going nowhere. Some runners were held up a half-hour or more before rail operators finally backed the stalled train clear of the tracks.

Among the victims was race founder John Selby, who had made his traditional appearance as Sasquatch at the starting line. After posing for many photos with grinning entrants, he joined a relay team headed by his daughter, Theresa.

2018 Rainier to Ruston Rail-Trail Relay (R2R) Founder’s Award

by Bill Hilton, Editor

Each year the Founder’s Award is given to someone who has made a significant contribution to the R2R. This year the award was presented during the May meeting of the Foothills Coalition board by John Selby to Dixie Gatchel for volunteering for 16 years to help with the R2R and providing significant leadership through the Friends of the Riverwalk in their efforts to complete the missing link in that trail and to connect the Riverwalk through the old Van Lierop’s property to the East Puyallup (Meeker) Trailhead of the Foothills Trail. Congratulations Dixie!

2019 Foothills Rails-to-Trails Coalition Annual Meeting and Dinner

by Bill Hilton, Coalition Vice President

Can you help? We are looking for donated items for a silent auction and raffle to be held, in January 2019, at the annual meeting and dinner for the Foothills Rails-to-Trails Coalition. It is not too early to start thinking about what you or your office can donate to help raise money at this dinner to assist Pierce County communities in the creation, maintenance and usage of a connected system of non-motorized trails for healthier people from Mt. Rainier to Puget Sound.

If you want to donate or have any questions please contact Bill Hilton, Vice President, Foothills Rails-to-Trails Coalition at 253 302-1104 or Billhltn@aol.com.
ForeverGreen Trails Report
by Dr. Jane Moore, Executive Director, ForeverGreen Trails

We are looking forward to hosting the 2nd Annual Pierce County Trails Day on July 28. This year, it is one week after the Buckley to Orting Half Marathon so we hope everyone can find another event to participate in to celebrate trails in Pierce County. As I write this, we are working hard to schedule trail events for the day. Last year, there were 17 events; we hope for 20 this year. Events include walks, bikes, hikes, clean-ups and more. Check our website at (www.forevergreentrails.org) or Facebook page (ForeverGreenTrails) for a complete listing of events and join us at one of them.

As part of Pierce County Trails Day, ForeverGreen Trails recognizes “Certified Trails Communities”. These communities have met five qualifications for certification. Qualifications include: official proclamation of Pierce County Trails Day; host a Pierce County Trails Day event; have a trails master plan; have a stewardship (Adopt-a-Trail) program; and have annual funding for trails. In 2017, the City of Puyallup, the City of Lakewood, and Metro Parks Tacoma were certified. They will all renew their certification in 2018; we hope to add at least two new communities; one will probably be Bonney Lake. ForeverGreen Trails can provide technical help with the proclamation, master plan, and stewardship program if needed.

ForeverGreen Trails is planning a Trails Day after-party fundraising event at The Hub, Tacoma on July 30, 5:30-8 pm. There will be good conversations, reports from Trails Day events, food, and opportunity to try a specially brewed Trails Day beer. We hope you can join us at this event.

Mark your calendars for the 2018 Pierce County Trails Conference – “Outside the Box” – on October 10th, 4:00 – 8:30 pm at Titlow Lodge in Tacoma. We are planning a great program with lots of networking time. Again, check for more details and registration links on our website or Facebook page.

Finally, if you are looking for program ideas for service clubs or other community events, consider our “Speak Up for Trails” presentation. This provides a “Local Government 101” training to help folks understand how to speak up for topics they support at a local government level.

Have a great summer & enjoy the local trails.

How Well Do You Know Your Pierce County Trails?
by John Selby, Board Member

Here’s your chance to win a free membership renewal in the Foothills Rails-to-Trails Coalition. If you can accurately describe the location of the photo below before anyone else does, you will win a one-year individual membership renewal. (Sorry, board members are excluded.)

The photo in the March issue was looking south at the Tot Lot along the Water Flume Line (Water Ditch) Trail at S 74th and S. Cedar Street, Tacoma. It was guessed by no one. In fact no one even guessed!

Let’s see how well you do on this one. Please respond to JohnSelby16@gmail.com with your answer to “How Well Do You Know Your Pierce County Trails?”

Good luck! The winner will be announced in the next issue.

If you don’t know your Pierce County trails well enough to guess, then get out there and explore them! You are missing out!
Puyallup Riverwalk Trail Efforts

by Bill Hilton, Editor

Friends of the (Puyallup) Riverwalk were out and about on May 14 working along the Riverwalk Trail. Our focus was Veterans Park performing several tasks as part of supporting the community and Parks & Rec with their ‘Adopt a Trail Program’. We are an enthusiastic bunch and thanks to John Peachey’s inquiry to city of Puyallup Parks & Recreation Director Sarah Harris, we were provided wood chips for beautification. Since the weather is hitting its spring stride it allowed us to spread chips, care for planter boxes, and do some weeding around Nature’s Medley. All in all, a great way to start the day!

City of Puyallup Adopt a Trail Program.
Foothills Trail Update

BY KIMBERLY FREEMAN, PIERCE COUNTY PARKS & RECREATION SUPERINTENDENT OF RESOURCE STEWARDSHIP

With the completion of the connecting sections of the Foothills Trail from Puyallup to Buckley, many are wondering when the next sections from South Prairie to Carbonado and Mount Rainier will begin. This trail connection is very important to the county, our city partners and our citizens. Pierce County is supportive of and pursing development of this next phase of development as it supports our rural cities with exciting transportation alternatives, recreational options and economic development opportunities.

In our ongoing interest of developing the Foothills Trail to Wilkeson and Carbonado, Pierce County Parks completed a key purchase of property located along Johns Road East near State Route 165 between South Prairie and Wilkeson early in 2018. The purchase was completed as part of our ongoing partnership with the Foothills Rails to Trails Coalition.

We are scheduled to identify a route through Gale Creek canyon beginning in 2020 to address damage caused by flood events of the recent past that have disrupted the connection to Wilkeson. Finally, trail design of the next major regional trail project will begin in 2021; design is an important step that identifies what it will take to construct a trail that is safe across the beautiful, rugged terrain of the canyon. With the vision for over 200 miles of trail, there are several projects being envisioned or constructed at any time and ‘readiness to move forward’ and resources dictate the pace. Resources for major design and development of new trail sections is anticipated beginning in 2021.

The Parks department is in the process of updating the Parks, Recreation and Open Space Plan (PROS) which will be adopted in early 2019. The PROS plan will contain a list of trail projects and a schedule for completion in the next 15 years. We will be holding public meetings and focus groups this fall regarding the update of the PROS plan and prioritization of trail projects. Cascade Junction to Carbonado will likely be at or near the top of the list given public interest, long standing vision, good community partnership and opportunities for funding.

We are excited about formally opening the connecting section of the Foothills Trail from South Prairie to Buckley on May 19th. While it is only the first 20 miles of the full vision, it is a cause to celebrate! This nationally recognized multiuse trail is the product of more than two decades of effort and partnership with citizens, trail advocacy groups and local jurisdictions. We look forward to continuing these relationships while we plan, design and develop the next sections of the Foothills Trail.

On May 19 a joyous crowd of trail supporters celebrated the symbolic connecting between the communities of Buckley, South Prairie and Puyallup at South Prairie’s Veterans Park. Happily, the weather gods graciously delayed the predicted showers until after we had collapsed our popups and headed home. The “connecting communities” theme transpired as Pierce County Executive Bruce Dammeier with Buckley Mayor Pat Johnson cycled from Buckley to converge in South Prairie with Puyallup Mayor John Palmer who cycled from the East Puyallup Foothills Trailhead with the Tacoma Wheelmen Bicycle Club. They all met in South Prairie with South Prairie Mayor Stu Terry.

Pierce County (PC) Parks & Recreation Director Roxanne Miles opened the ribbon-cutting ceremony with a great optimistic rundown of trail history and future trail progress. The following speakers were enthusiastic in appreciation and in praise for the collaborative efforts of the many who helped to make it happen. PC Executive Bruce Dammeier; Past PC Parks Director Jan Wolcott; PC Councilmember Doug Richardson; Puyallup Mayor John Palmer; and South Prairie Mayor Stu Terry.

Many thanks to our wonderful volunteer Foothills photographer Bob Rowan for taking zillions of photos which we will share when received. Recognition was accorded to the following attending: past PC Park Directors Kathy Kravit-Smith and Tony Tipton; Enumclaw Mayor Jan Molinaro; and to trail founders Dr. Douglas Tate and Dr. Ernie Bay who surely were smiling down from that happy trail in the universe.

Foothills Coalition President Buzz Grant had the following to say about this long-awaited special day of dedication: “Forgive us for feeling a little giddy. This day has been long in coming. It was a small band of visionary citizens who more than 30 years ago saw enormous potential in converting miles of abandoned railroad right of way in the Puyallup Valley into a safe, wide paved recreational trail for people of all ages and abilities. This was the beginning of our Foothills Rails-to-Trails Coalition, an all-volunteer, non-profit group that worked hard to persuade elected officials to launch the trail project and keep construction going despite financial, legal and political hurdles. Today the Foothills National Recreational Trail, spanning 20.5 miles from Puyallup to Buckley, draws thousands of users seeking fresh air, healthy exercise and mountain and river views year-round.”

The event was a huge success and well done. A gigantic “Shout Out” to all those wonderful folks who made it happen: PC Parks Director Roxanne Mills; PC Superintendent of Recreation Scott Hall, and Intern Cindy Haverk (The donuts were delicious). Presenting partners included Puyallup Parks & Recreation (Director Sarah Harris and staff); Friends of the Carbon Canyon (Mardel...
The delayed runners “seemed to take it in stride (pun intended),” Selby reported later. A race volunteer took bib numbers and arrival times to the finish-line timing tent so that team finish times could be adjusted.

And just a few minutes later, Sasquatch showed up at the finish line, chasing his alarmed-looking teammates to the final bell stand to hearty cheers from the waiting crowd of runners and supporters.

“We should have won gold spikes for the most fun,” said Selby, a Foothills Coalition board member.

The traditional railroad spikes were to be given to winning teams later. But the glossy medals every runner earned were very popular. Race director Sabrina Seher arranged for production of a hefty but stylish golden medal that was bestowed upon runners at the finish. Yep, there’s a furtive-looking Sasquatch incorporated in the design.

Despite the train glitch and some inconvenient, almost last-minute course changes forced by highway construction and governmental red tape, Seher, directing her third consecutive R2R, was pleased. Some 1,450 runners registered, handily topping last year’s record of 1,350 participants, even though the ultramarathon category was discontinued this year to streamline the event and make better use of volunteer resources.

The Foothills Rails-to-Trails Coalition holds the R2R every year on National Trails Day, the first Saturday in June. The goal is to promote the coalition’s vision for a public recreational trail stretching from the southwestern boundary Mount Rainier National Park to Commencement Bay.

Proceeds from the race help the coalition maintain undeveloped parts of the proposed trail route and advocate for an expanded network of trails connecting Pierce County communities. The coalition plays a key role in helping city and county governments win trail construction grants by providing matching funds.

The popular and scenic Foothills Trail, a paved path linking Puyallup, Orting, South Prairie — and now Buckley, with a new segment opened this year — owes its existence largely to farsighted and tenacious early members of the coalition.

Long live the Foothills Rails-to-Trails Coalition — and the R2R. On to The Mountain!
in South Prairie to the old Fitzer’s Mill site on the south side of Buckley. There is now a continuous trail from the East Puyallup Trailhead through Alderton, McMillan, Orting, Crocker, and South Prairie to Buckley and the White River. This is not the completion of the Foothills Trail, but a good start.

The dedication had groups of people riding from Puyallup, Orting and down from Buckley. Some of us arrived for the festivities about 9:00 am for set ups, and it was truly amazing at about 10:30 am the number of people blossomed in a matter of minutes to a very crowded state of affairs. It was great! We had all of the past and present Directors of Pierce County Parks and Recreation, Pierce County Executive, chair of the Pierce County Council, and mayors from Buckley, Enumclaw and South Prairie. As usual we had some really good speeches about the good of trails from elected officials which made me feel advocating for trails throughout Pierce County is the right thing to do. Scott Hall of Pierce County Parks and Recreation really outdid himself in setting up a first class celebration. The rain held off until after the festivities were complete, and we were packed up to go home.

Now for the future. The Bridge over the White River and on to the city of Enumclaw is well into the planning stages. We need the city of Puyallup, Pierce County and the developers to come together and complete the connection of the Foothills Trail and the Riverwalk Trail on the East side of Puyallup. Then we need to connect the Foothills Trail up Gale/Wilkeson Creek Canyon to Wilkeson, Carbonado and on to the boundary of Mount Rainier National Park. Not necessarily in that order.

Are we done? No. We need a trail down the Puyallup River to Tacoma to complete the original dream, the ‘Mountain to the Sound’. I know: want, want, want. We have to keep the dream alive.

Oh, Oh news flash. June 1 I spoke with Monica Leers of King County Parks, and they plan to construct the Foothills Trail in King County from the end of the Enumclaw Trail section down to Boise Creek at SE Mud Mountain Rd in the summer of 2019. Construction of the White River Bridge will take place in 2021. There have been some hick-ups in this project (like most trail projects), but it looks like this is written in stone. Things really are moving along.

Happy Trails
Chown and Sue McCluskey); ForeverGreen Trails (Heather Rowley, Jane Moore and Terry Reid); East Pierce Fire & Rescue; Puyallup Watershed Initiative Active Transportation Community (Hannah Miner); Foothills Rails-to-Trails Coalition (Buzz Grant, Loras Gassmann; Carolyn Pasquier; Ken Woolery); Friends of the Riverwalk (John Peachey); and Plateau Trails Coalition (Mark Richmond; Don Partington). We gave away many of our new t-shirts with the trail imprint on the back and jillions of Foothills logo lapel pins. I would like to give a special thank you to park staffer Mitch Nelson and his partner for building a very sturdy temporary access bridge so that those among us with limited mobility could join the parade up to the bridge for the ribbon cutting.

Happy Trails (and more of them)

"Never doubt that a small group of committed people can change the world. Indeed it is the only thing that ever has.”

Foothills Coalition Courtesy Patrol
by Bill Hilton, Editor

The Rails-to-Trails Foothills Coalition is looking for a Courtesy Patrol Leader. The Foothills Coalition would like to re-establish the Courtesy Patrol with the purpose of providing information and assistance to users of the Foothills Trail while walking, cycling, rollerblading, running or riding horseback on the trail.

The Courtesy Patrol was created in 2002 to encourage trail courtesy and provide trail information to users. Members also assist with special events such as the Foothills Dash, Daffodil Classic bike ride, the Rainier to Ruston Relay, and the Buckley to Orting Half Marathon. Patrol hours and locations are optional. Members wear bright, yellow vests which identify them as Courtesy Patrollers.

Courtesy Patrol members previously met the 3rd Saturday of each month at High Cedars Golf Course, 149th St. Ct. E., Orting. A no-host breakfast starts at 8 AM and the casual meeting at 9 AM with a free-for-all discussion about the past, present and future of the Courtesy Patrol. Guest speakers and training sessions are often included.

If you are interested or would like more information please contact John Selby at (253) 841-1767 or johnselby16@gmail.com.
